

Blue Notes

A Political Newsletter From David Berman

During the 2020 presidential campaign, Democrats Club member David Berman published a political newsletter called Blue Notes, which had more than 200 subscribers and was very well received due to the quality of its writing.

In response to many requests, David is reviving Blue Notes in order to address many of the issues arising out of our polarized political climate. Distributed on a loose schedule, Blue Notes will be free of charge and will be emailed to subscribers whenever David publishes a new edition.

Though Blue Notes will have a generally progressive/liberal outlook, the content will be thoughtful and journalistically sound, and the newsletter will be interactive so that subscribers can be part of the conversations if they wish. In addition, by disseminating the newsletter through the popular Substack service, it will be open to subscribers from all over the nation and the world.

More than 50 people have already subscribed to Blue Notes in response to a brief invitation on David's blog. Everyone who subscribes prior to next week's distribution of the first edition will be considered a charter subscriber.

To subscribe to Blue Notes, send an email request to David Berman, davidinlv15@gmail.com, and make sure to include your name in your message.
